

EARS & EYEBALLS

XMAS EDITION STREAMLIST

XMAS

Mary Poppins Returns- This is a nostalgia choice. It's not as good as the original but sometimes you just need a spoonful of sugar. SKY CINEMA

Holiday In The Wild - Rob Lowe and Kristin Davis in this gem of a Christmas film. It's easy to watch but with a lot of unexpected soul. NETFLIX

The Littlest Reindeer - Oh what joy a fun film with everyone about the littlest reindeer who wants to pull Santa's sleigh! NETFLIX

DATE NIGHT

Destination Wedding - Keanu Reeves and Winona Ryder star in this film about well a destination wedding - worth a look. NETFLIX

The Legend of Barney Thompson - This is some seriously dark humour of a man who works as a barber and one incident makes his whole life unravel. BBC IPlayer

STUFF YOUR FACE

Call My Agent - It's in French and so funny. Film agents managing their actors. NETFLIX

Elizabeth Is Missing - based on a book about a woman with alzheimer's trying to find her friend who is missing or is she...BBC Iplayer

A Christmas Carol - Who doesn't like a bit of Dickens on Christmas Day. You know the BBC know how to do period drama well. Curl up and keep stuffing the quality street! BBC Iplayer

WINE & CUT THE CHAT/HOW HAVE I NOT SEEN THIS?

THE PROGRAM - Remember when Lance Armstrong was seen as the greatest cyclist ever and then we found out he had a little help. Well a journalist at the Irish Times always had his doubts. This film based on that journalist's book is worth a look. BBC IPLAYER

TELL ME WHO I AM- Is it ever ok to lie to a loved one as an act of love. A brother loses his memory and the only person he recognises is his twin brother who decides to lie to him. Thought provoking. NETFLIX

DUVET DAYS

- The Witcher - I can't wait for this to start on 20 December. I am ready to binge on Henry Cavill as some monster hunter for hire. Netflix
- His Dark Materials- I still haven't finished watching this so I shall be bingeing on Philip Pullman's masterpiece BBC Iplayer
- The Two Popes - a fictionalised look at the friendship between Benedict and Francis. Anthony Hopkins stars, NETFLIX
