VIRTUAL TRAVEL

When you want to leave but can't a documentary is the next best thing!!

THE BLUE PLANET/ PLANET EARTH/ FROZEN PLANET - Yes you're homebound but you can travel watching these BBC documentaries. IPLAYER

From Russia to Iran: Country Wild Frontiers - Channel 4/ 4OD

READ THE BOOK & THEN WATCH

Fantastic Beast and where to find them - NOW TV

His Dark Materials - Box set available on IPLAYER

The Gruffalo and Gruffalo Child - IPLAYER

THE BFG - The classic and there's two versions available. IPLAYER AND NETFLIX

THE HATE YOU GIVE - Young Adult book about a black girl who is torn between her working class neighbourhood and the posh private school she goes to. NOW TV

GOOSEBUMPS 1&2 - There are lots of these books in the series and then two films for viewing pleasure on NETFLIX.

12 - 15 YEAR OLDS

HISTORY LESSON

WAR AND PEACE - Well they've got time to read it now innit, as part of history lesson home school and two versions to watch. One is on Sky Arts via NOW TV and the other on BBC IPlayer.

SUFFRAGETTE - Those rights they have people died for so this is a timely reminder. All star film of the struggle for suffrage - 40D

COMPASSION

THE BLIND SIDE - Oscar winning with Sandra Bullock, telling the true story of Michael Oher who was a homeless teen, and through the kindness of strangers becomes NFL star with a lot of hard work! Sky Cinema /NOW TV

15 - 18 YEAR OLDS

NOUGHTS & CROSSES - Make them read the books first and then watch the tv series. This should spark some interesting debates are privilege and race. BBC IPLAYER

FOR SAMA - 5 years of life in the Syrian civil war and how civilians cope with the everyday uncertainty. 40D

20 FEET FROM STARDOM - Ok we may be relieved there's no more reality shows but if yours want to be on X Factor etc. This documentary shows what it takes to be a true star. Oscar winning and thought provoking. NETFLIX

UNI KIDS/ LET'S HAVE THAT CHAT

All of the following are to provoke conversation, gain a better insight into that teenage brain:

MY LEFT NUT - Humorous yet considered comedy about testicular cancer in an adolescent. BBC 3/ IPlayer

ABUSED BY MY GIRLFRIEND- possibly for post 18 year olds but important topic of conversation, domestic abuse is not just carried out by men. BBC IPlayer

Paranormal Activity - how better to bond than by watching a scary movie. I don't do horrors. BBC IPlayer

THREE IDENTICAL STRANGERS - Stranger than fiction how triplets were separated at birth and how they became reunited with devastating consequences. 40D/ Netflix

REQUIEM FOR A DREAM - I have yet to see a more disturbing and shocking film than this about the effects of drugs. Once seen, never forgotten especially that final scene. All star cast and a must watch with your little darlings to remind them that drugs are whack! Amazon Prime

AN IDIOT ABROAD - 3 Series and my goodness, all those foolish things you ever thought about doing in your youth, Karl Pilkington does on your behalf. It might not stop them doing it but at least you can have amusing discussions. NOW TV/ Netflix
