

EARS & EYEBALLS

LOCK DOWN - WEEK 7 - STREAMLIST

AFTER WORK

NORMAL PEOPLE - Either you loved or hated the book, but we can all agree that the tv series is well written and engaging. Follows two young people from small town Ireland from different social backgrounds who, yes, fall in love. BBC IPLAYER

THE KING'S SPEECH - Another VE day special film. The story of how King George VI overcame his stammer to lead the nation at the outbreak of World War II. BBC IPLAYER

WINE & CUT THE CHAT/HOW HAVE I NOT SEEN THIS?

THE IMITATION GAME - The battle wasn't just fought on the field but also in Britain and all of us owe a debt to Alan Turing, for his work on enigma. This biopic is well worth watching and a fitting tribute on VE day. AMAZON PRIME

HIDDEN FIGURES - The story of how 3 black women working at NASA helped Apollo II land safely. Hidden no more. 4OD

DATE NIGHT

WHEN HARRY MET SALLY - The film tries to answer the eternal question, can men and women ever be friends without sex getting in the way. NETFLIX

INCEPTION - Possibly Christopher Nolan's best film to date. It's good, dream architects who steal information from other people's dreams. It's complex and that ending!! AMAZON PRIME

IRON & WATCH

THE BIG C - Cancer is not something to be joked about, but this series manages to find humour in the darkest moments and with an all star cast led by Laura Linney it is so watchable. AMAZON PRIME

THE LAST DANCE - Will you have a greater respect for Michael Jordan after watching this? I think so but questions too. It focuses on his career at the Chicago Bulls during the 90s. NETFLIX

THEATRE ONLINE

ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA - I saw this production last year at the National Theatre and Ralph Fiennes and Sophie Okonedo deserve the highest praise. Compelling and Captivating.

KIDS CORNER

TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD - Are you in danger of shutting the homeschool down? If you are, put on the Oscar winning classic with Gregory Peck in the lead role. AMAZON PRIME

GREAT EXPECTATIONS - The Dickens classic with Ralph Fiennes. Again, school's out for the day and sit back and watch Pip's journey. BBC IPLAYER

DUVET DAY

RACE ACROSS THE WORLD - Anyone else a little bit addicted to this? The couples have to make it around the world without money, phone, internet or airplanes. BBC IPLAYER

EAT PRAY LOVE - What are you going to do at the end of this artistic residency? Ditch the job, learn Italian, pray in Bali? Ok, well just watch it instead. NETFLIX

AFTER LIFE - This is a two series drama series written and starring Ricky Gervais. I'm no fan of his crass comedy but this, well it's well written and observed examination of grief from the male perspective. AMAZON PRIME

JUST WANT TO WATCH SOMETHING GOOD

DAYS OF GLORY - The power of good storytelling without preaching. This film tells the story of 4 North African soldiers fighting for France during the second world war. After the war, De Gaulle had frozen the right of North African soldiers to obtain their pensions. After watching this film, Chirac immediately reversed that decision. I dare you not to be moved. A must see. AMAZON PRIME

YOU WERE NEVER REALLY HERE - I saw Lynn Ramsey's film at Cannes 2017 and blown away by Joaquin Phoenix's performance as a veteran suffering PTSD who thinks he makes no difference. He does. He's a cleaner saving a young girls from a pedophile ring. This is a challenging film - short, sharp and jarring told mostly in flashback and under 90 mins. NETFLIX/ AMAZON PRIME

THE FULL MONTY- Out of work steel workers seek a way to make money and so turn to stripping. This film is a story of resilience, and masculinity in all of its forms. It's also over 20 years old! BBC IPLAYER

SHRILL - When I first started watching this, I thought it was uncomfortable funny. A woman with low self esteem issues who is dating a loser and gets treated poorly by nearly everyone except her flatmate. Stick with it, after episode 2 it hits its stride. BBC IPLAYER

SUPPORT THE GIRLS - Why more people don't know about this film, I just don't know. It is fab. Lisa manages a sports bar where the waitresses wear short skirts and even tighter shirts, she full of optimism until everything starts going wrong. Regina Hall is incredible. NETFLIX
