

EARS & EYEBALLS

LOCK DOWN - WEEK 13 - MIDSUMMER - STREAMLIST

AFTER WORK

DISPATCHES: STARBUCKS AND NESPRESSO - THE TRUTH ABOUT YOUR COFFEE is a thought provoking watch. I love my coffee but must admit I don't always think about where it comes from. Children picking my coffee is a no no. I had a nespresso machine but after watching this nespresso won't be getting any more of my money and I've long said goodbye to Starbucks. CHANNEL 4/40D

WINE & CUT THE CHAT/HOW HAVE I NOT SEEN THIS?

I'M NOT YOUR NEGRO - Of all the BLM films and documentaries to watch, I think this should be one of the only if I were to recommend one. James Baldwin, Martin Luther King and Malcolm X all appear as themselves but it is Baldwin's words and perceptions that will leave you pondering for days and wondering why haven't we got any further 40 years on. BBC IPLAYER

DATE NIGHT

MA - This horror flick starts off really well and feels fresh. Octavia Spencer as the lonely woman who lets the neighbourhood kids play in her basement. It then loses its nerve and the audience in the final 20 mins. SKY CINEMA

CALL ME BY YOUR NAME - A gay coming of age story set in 1980s Italy, sumptuous with substance. 40D/FILM 4

IRON & WATCH

PERRY MASON - Not the Raymond Burr version that we loved but a new take on it with Matthew Rhys set in the 1930s/40s - film noir esque. It's something to have on. NOW TV/SKY

INSECURE - Season 4 - this is fun, colourful language but at its beating heart is female friendship. between Issa and Molly as they try to navigate life as two black women in California. SKY ATLANTIC/NOW TV

THEATRE ONLINE

SMALL ISLAND - Based on Andrew Levy's book - it's good, a bit long. NATIONAL THEATRE

KIDS CORNER

MALEFICIENT: MISTRESS OF EVIL -

This is the next instalment in the tale of Sleeping Beauty's daughter and the wicked witch. It's good, very dark so even though it has a 12, there were moments when I was scared and jumping around.

DUVET DAY

A HOUSE THROUGH TIME- Historian David Olusoga's show is fascinating as it tells the story of a house and its different occupants. BBC IPLAYER

99 HOMES - Michael Shannon and Andrew Garfield stars in this film about a ruthless developer who evicts people from their homes. Garfield is one such owner who makes a Faustian pact with Shannon that he will help evict others in order to save his own house. BBC IPLAYER

JUST WANT TO WATCH SOMETHING GOOD

THE HANDMAIDEN - This is divine to watch, the colours are so vivid and the story is beautifully told of a Handmaiden who infiltrates a family in order to help a conman steal an heiress's fortune. This is a top class thriller from master South Korean director Chan Wook Park. 4OD/ CHANNEL 4

TONI ERDMANN- This film is excellent. I can still remember the ending three years after seeing it. It's a fresh look at the adult daughter and father relationship. It's a dark comedy, the daughter is a restructuring expert and her father is the eternal joker. Just watch it. AMAZON PRIME

SHINY SHRIMPS- A film about the worst gay French polo team as they try and secure a place at the gay olympics (yes this really exists). It's not to be just treated as a gay film, it covers so many issues and is engaging and uplifting. AMAZON PRIME

SOUTHERN RITES This left me speechless. This documentary was made in 2014 and there was still segregation in a small town in Georgia, where there was a black dance and then a white dance. Yes, let that sink in. This documentary is stranger than fiction, a white father of a mixed race daughter shoots dead the black guy she was seeing as he was fleeing his house. SKY/NOW TV

THE SINNER SEASON 3 - Bill Pullman is back as, Harry Ambrose, detective that unpacks every little detail to get to the truth. This time it is Matt Boner in the hot seat. NETFLIX
